DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Examiner appreciates Applicant's election of claims 1-9 without traverse. Claims 10-29 have been withdrawn from further consideration as being drawn to nonelected inventions.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-6 and 8-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wu (NPL document cited by Applicant).

Wu teaches a method of coating a biosensor, a medical device, by vaporizing a frozen target with a laser beam to deposit a bio-layer on the medical device (abstract).

Wu teaches that the target may be a protein, enzyme, living cells, or polyethylene glycol in a solution within a solvent (Introduction, Sections 2.2, 3.1, and 4.1) to be frozen and mounted on a refrigerated assembly. The assembly may be rotated (Fig. 2(a)) within a vacuum chamber, subjecting the target to a pulsed laser beam, after which the solvent is pumped away for deposition of the target.

Art Unit: 1762

Wu teaches creation of multilayer composite structures using the pulsed laser deposition method of his invention (Conclusion), inherently requiring directing the laser beam at another frozen target.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wu.

Wu teaches that which is disclosed above. Additionally, from Figure 2(a), it appears that the vaporized target material is directed towards the substrate, however Wu does not specifically teach transporting the material within a directed "gas flow". However, it is Examiner's position that it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to enhance the flow of the target coating by directing it to the desired substrate using a suspending gas stream.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. McGill is cited for teaching the use of MAPLE. Hellinga teaches that biosensors act as medical devices which may be implantable (DETX15). Ratner teaches that biosensors are implantable medical devices (DETX17).
